Primary Called.

At a meeting of the Democratic Committee of the 28th Senatorial District, composed of the Chairmen of the County Committees of Bourbon, Clark and Montgomery, at Winchester, yesterday, a primary election was ordered in the three above named counties on the 18th day of May, 1905, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for State Senator in said district. Each candidate who proposes to enter the race must deposit $500 with Lee S. Baldwin, on or before May 3rd, to pay expenses of election. If there is only one candidate who has paid the sum stated by that time, he will be declared the nominee by the committee.

Three Held Without Bond.

Bail was allowed Alexander Hargis by Judge Parker Monday morning at Lexington, but was refused the other three defendants, Judge James Hargis, Elbert Hargis and Sheriff Ed. Callahan, all of Breathitt county.

An hour later Alex. Hargis appeared in court with his attorneys and offered J. F. VanDeren, John Flood, Gus Straus and Jos. Skain as bondsmen. These gentlemen were accepted on the bond for $15,000 and Alex Hargis left the court house alone.

The trial was set for Tuesday, April 4th.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Cecilian concert arranged for by the Elks Band with the Montenegro-Riehm Music Company, of Louisville, will be given on Thursday, April 6th.

This concert will not only enable the people of Paris and surrounding territory to hear the wonderful Cecilian piano player, an instrument that enables anyone to play the piano without years of study and practice, but will give us an opportunity to hear Miss Flora Marguerite Bertelle, the most gifted soprano and musician in the South.

Another artist that will be heard will be the gifted young violinist, Mr. Matthias Oliver. This young man is a thorough master of the recognized king of instruments, the violin. Mr. Oliver has been the recipient of many honors, and the critics who have heard him say he is one of the finest violinists now before the public.
